HOUSE TO LET.

"Strange that a harp of thousand strings Should keep in tune so long."

THIS subscriber has several chambers to let in his house which is beautifully located directly opposite Trinity Church Burying Ground; he will rent the rooms with furniture, or without, as may best suit the tenant. There is, probably, no more desirable spot in Newport, for those whose souls are not entirely steeped in sin, and wrapped up in the flimsy veil of this world's delusion; the occupant may sit at the window, and view the last home of man in all its mysterious and solemn grandeur,—and seriously reflect upon the great uncertainty of all things human! Here he can commune with himself, and meditate, in full view of the grave yard, on the final consummation of all things, and anticipate that universal crash, when the earth shall be burned up, and the heavens be rolled together as a scroll. We must reflect upon these things here, and be prepared with our passport when we meet the last Tyler, or we shall receive the fatal mark of the black brush; why, land! what is a few day's sojourn in this miserable world, compared to a high seat in the Celestial Lodge above, where the Knighthood will be gathered in the pure robes of innocence and beauty!

In order to secure the chambers, early application should be made, to

TO CLARA.

I love to gaze upon thy face,
So radiant with love,
And those bright eyes of thine shine out
Like stars in heaven above.

Thy dimpled cheeks are soft and pure,
And that sweet smile of thine,
Tells of a heart all kind and true;
A soul almost divine.

Mayst thou, sweet CLARA, ever be
My guiding-star through life,
And lead me to those crystal streams,
Where love is ever rife.

My earth for thee no sorrows have,
Life's evening be serene,
And guardian angels deck thy brow
With heaven's most peerless sheen.

Mr. Cranston then stated that the first business was to elect a speaker. Mr. Clarke of Providence, nominated Hon. ROBERT B. CRANSTON, of Newport, and he was unanimously elected, the vote being put by Thomas A. Jenckes, Esq., clerk of the House. Mr. Cranston, on taking the chair, addressed the House as follows, viz:—

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives: I am utterly at a loss for language to express my thanks for the high honor you have conferred upon me. I bring to the Chair little experience in Legislative matters, and none as a presiding officer; nothing but a conviction that the same generous confidence which placed me here, will assist me in the discharge of the duties of the office, would induce me to accept it. I entertain the hope that, in the discharge of our official duties, we shall all be governed by feelings of courtesy, patriotism, and a desire to administer the Government in the best manner.

The Speaker stated that the next business in order would be the election of Clerks. Mr. Dixon, of Westerly, nominated Thomas A. Jenckes, for first Clerk; Mr. Smith, of Providence, nominated Francis E. Hoppin, for the same office. Mr. Dixon then withdrew the name of Mr. Jenckes, and Mr. Hoppin was unanimously elected first Clerk.

Mr. Dixon, of Westerly, then nominated Mr. Jenckes for second Clerk; and Mr. Smith, of Providence, nominated Mr. Benjamin T. Eames, for the same office. The ballot was taken, which resulted as follows, viz:—

EAMES,	40,
JENCKES,	25.

Mr. Eames was therefore declared elected by a majority of 15. Messrs. Hoppin and Eames were then sworn into office by the Speaker. A message was received from the Senate that they had organized, and were ready to proceeding to business.

By invitation of the House, the Senate then joined them for the purpose of opening the session with prayer, which was offered by the Rev. A. Henry Dumont. The two Houses then separated.

By invitation, the Senate then joined the House in Grand Committee, for the purpose of receiving and counting the votes.

His Excellency Gov. Jackson took the Chair, and called the Grand Committee to order, and requested the Secretary to call the towns, when the members would hand in the votes for General Officers. The ballots from all the towns were received, and a committee of three from each county was appointed to count them, consisting of the following members, viz:—NEWPORT COUNTY, Lawton, Manchester and Howland; PROVIDENCE COUNTY, Smith, Harris and Tourtelotte; WASHINGTON COUNTY, Olney, Sherman and Austin; KENT COUNTY, Pollard, Harris and Ellis; BRISTOL COUNTY, Pearce, Randall and Bicknell.

Mr. Potter, of Providence, presented a memorial from certain citizens of North Providence, relative to several votes in that town; the memorial was received and referred to the County Committee, who were authorized to investigate the matter, and, if necessary, to send for persons and papers. On motion of Mr. Brown, of Cumberland, Mr. Davis of North Providence, was added to the Committee, as this was a local matter, and the Committee might need information from some member from that town, relative to the facts in the case. The Secretary of State, and the Clerks of the Senate and House, were added to the Committee.

SENATE.

The following members of the Senate appeared at the hour of meeting, and were severally engaged.

The Senate then proceeded to the election of Clerk, for the ensuing year. The Hon. Simon R. Sands, of N. Shoreham, nominated Joseph S. Pitman, and the Hon. Joseph Potter, of Westerly, nominated George Rivers, the late Clerk. The ballot was taken, and resulted in the election of Mr. Pitman. The vote stood,

PITMAN,	19
RIVERS,	13

The Senate then joined the House for the purpose of opening the session with prayer.

The two houses then joined in Grand Committee, for the purpose of receiving and counting the votes for General Officers.

The Grand Committee then adjourned, to meet again at five o'clock this afternoon.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 1916.

DOINGS OF THE DAY.—Yesterday was an exciting day for the ancient city of Newport. In the morning, the sky was overcast, and there was every reason to expect rain; but the clouds rolled away at an early hour, and the sun shone forth brilliantly and warmly. The streets were filled during the whole day, with men, women and children, in their best attire, and all appeared to enjoy themselves, to their heart's content. The military never looked better. Company H. of the 2d Regiment of U. S. Artillery, commanded by Capt. Swartout, joined in the escort, and fired the salute when the Governor arrived; their flying artillery pieces looked extremely war-like and martial, as they passed our office, in the procession. Our ancient and honorable Artillery never looked better than on this occasion, in their new and beautiful uniform. The Horse Guards also made a fine appearance, and their ranks were full. The American Brass Band from Providence appeared in full and brilliant uniform, and regaled the ears of thousands with most exquisite music. Every thing passed off well; without an accident to mar the pleasures of the day. Really, these Newport elections are great affairs.

The room, which we occupy was formerly in the possession of our friend Riler, and at election time, he used to fix up matters in good style, on this very spot; the "boys" who have been in the habit of visiting him at such times, from abroad, not knowing that any change had been made, have been making calls upon us, ever since Monday morning, for the purpose of obtaining something of a consoling nature,—but as soon as they discover that they are in a Printing Office, they depart as quickly as if the sheriff was after them. They are probably afraid of that little spirit of darkness which belongs to every Printing Office.

There is a strong probability that Congress will adjourn sometime between the first of June and the first of July, and that the tariff bill will be passed over to the next session. It is also said that Congress will adjourn to meet again in October, instead of December, when the tariff question and others of importance will be taken up and acted upon.

THE LEGISLATURE.—This body will meet again this morning, at 10 o'clock, and the counting committee will report the result of the election. In all probability, there is no choice by the people, and the Legislature will therefore proceed to ballot for Governor and Lieut. Governor, selecting as candidates, the two highest of those who were run for the respective offices. After the election is completed, the usual salute will be fired by the Artillery Company, on the Parade, and the Governor escorted to his quarters, when a salute will be fired by the company, with their muskets.

We issued an edition of nearly one thousand copies of the News yesterday, and have not a paper in the office now.

They say that Park Benjamin did not translate "The Three Guardsmen," from the French; but that it was done by some one else, although Park's name is on the title page. Some Lesterism about this, Park?

Strawberries have made their appearance in Baltimore; we should like to be there about this time.

Edwin Forrest is engaged to play at the Park Theatre, N. Y., on the 28th of August next, and he will sail from London sometime in the early part of July.

Hon Amos Kendall is to be the Orator for the Literary Societies at Dartmouth, next commencement.

The Corpus Christi Gazette of the 26th of March, which we received by mail this morning, says:—"We are requested to announce H. A. Gilpin as a candidate for the office of County Clerk for the county of San Patricio, under the State constitution." We believe that Mr. Gilpin is a native of this town.

FROM MEXICO.

The Mexican schooner Ventura, arrived at New Orleans on the 24th ult. She is said to have a bearer of important despatches on board.

The announcement that Santa Ana intended to return to Mexico, had created a great sensation, and Parades was pulling every string to frighten him off. The government had avowed its determination to repel him, should he return.

The criminal proceedings before his exile have been published, by order of the Supreme Court, to prepare the minds of the people for any future acts of severity.

Santa Ana has written to a paper, praising the liberality of Parades, in giving office to his friends.

Parades did not reciprocate this mutual kindness, for he ordered all the presses in favor of Santa Ana to be seized, and the directors imprisoned.

Parades has also issued his manifesto declaring his want of power to declare war against the United States, and he leaves it to Congress to declare what shall be done, but he asserts that he will repel any attack of Gen. Taylor with all the means in his power.

Parades assigns as a reason for not receiving Mr. Slidell, that it would appear to be a sign of weakness to retract the determination when the American army was on the Mexican borders, and our ships of war were on her coast.

The Indians made an incursion into Durango, in March, and were repulsed by a body of Mexican troops.

The following U. S. vessels of war remained at Sacrificios, near Vera Cruz, on the 11th ult., viz:—Frigates Cumberland and Potomac, and sloops of war St. Mary, Fal-mouth and John Adams.

The course of Parades towards the press was evidently having its effect upon it.

We have seen a letter, says the Washington Union, from an officer of the army in Texas, of so recent a date as the 16th ult., from which we have been permitted to take the following extract:

"The news from the camp is very pacific at present. The report is that the Mexicans intend to postpone their operations until the 1st of June, in order to allow the Governments to arbitrate the matter, but no reliance is to be placed upon what they say."

The first General conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, assembled at Petersburg, Va., on Friday, 1st of May.

FIRE.—The N. Y. Express says: "We learn by passengers from Morristown, N. J., that the splendid hotel, called the New Jersey Hotel, erected by Wm. Gibbons, Esq., at Morristown, was entirely destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. The loss is estimated at from 80 to $100,000, on which there was no insurance."

CONNEL'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR.—Burns or blistered surfaces, sore eyes, weak backs, pain in the side, soreness of the chest, disabled limbs, and all inflammations are speedily cured by Connel's Pain Extractor. This remarkable sensitive possesses many virtues never found in any other article. It has the most perfect power over all pains by fire, positively allaying the suffering almost immediately upon its application. If any disbelieve the statements, we would earnestly entreat them to call and examine the numerous unsolicited certificates of remarkable cures, wrought by this Salve. It has for months past been sold upon the following liberal terms, to wit: If the user was not perfectly satisfied, and even delighted with its effects, and furthermore, if it did not fully answer our recommendation, their money was returned immediately at their request. On these terms this absolute Head-All is now sold, and we simply ask if the public can demand anything more reasonable.

Comstock & Co., 21 Courtlandt st., New York, sole proprietors. For sale in Newport by May 4 3d R. J. TAYLOR.

THE EAST INDIA HATH DYE, is warranted to impart to the Hair a beautiful jet-black, without either affecting its softness or strength, and without staining, or in any way injuring the skin. It is perfectly innocent in its nature, and has no deleterious effects on the health, as is attested by the experience of those in this city who have used it for a long time, and who still continue to use it. An apprehension of its possessing some injurious qualities, has alone deterred thousands from using this valuable composition, which so much beautifies and adorns personal appearance.

91. 10,000 DOLLARS REWARD. 91.

You will excuse, kind reader, the above in-ventent description to induce you to read this advertisement, as it is for your benefit as well as our own.

RE-OPENING OF THE UNITED STATES CLOTHING STORE.

A still greater revolution in the sale of Ready Made Clothing. New Store and new Goods, at the old stand, where the public have been favored with so many good bargains. 91 Thames street, one door north of Messrs. W. B. & E. J. SWAN'S.

THE PROPRIETOR of this Establishment has the pleasure of informing the people of Newport and its vicinity, that he has leased the new and commodious store, 91 Thames street, for the purpose of carrying on the Ready Made Clothing Business, where the public may be assured that they will always find on hand the largest assortment of Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the place, as well as the lowest prices. If I can but induce the people to call upon me, I will give them the most positive proof of the truth of this assertion, as I am determined to secure for the United States Clothing Store a tremendous run of custom, and, aware as I am, that competition is so severe, that the only mode of success is to offer my Goods at a small advance on Cost. Will the people call upon me? I will give them the most positive and pleasing evidence of what I say; still more, I will not urge them with undue persuasion to purchase what they do not want. The custom of forcing goods upon people has become so prevalent that they are sorely perplexed to know where they can go and be allowed the use of their own judgment in selection of Goods. Once more I beseech of you to call and examine my stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods, before purchasing elsewhere, which consists of a large and good assortment of FROCK and DRESS COATS, of a variety of styles and colors; also, a large quantity of TWEED FROCK and SACK COATS; 2 or 3 dozen of the GOLD MIXED TWEED, a most beautiful article for summer, Kentucky Jeans, and a great variety of other kinds, too numerous to mention.

Silk and Worsted, Black Silk Velvets, Dark Valencia, Dark Lutestring and Bombazine, do. As well as the above articles, I have a great variety of Coats, Pants, Vests, and Jackets, made of various kinds of goods, which go to make up a full assortment, but which it is needless to specify.

FURNISHING GOODS.

I challenge the place to show such an assortment. I have Shirts of the latest French styles and patterns, with yoke necks, from $1.25 to $2.50; also, common Shirts, with linen bosoms and collars, from 67c to $1.50. Linen Bosoms, plain, pleated, and Ruffled, from 25c to $1.00. Linen Collars of all styles and qualities, from 8c to 25c. Cotton Flannel Shirts and Drawers, Lamb's wool, do; Portsmouth, do; Red twilled Under-shirts and Drawers; Hickory Shirts and Overalls.

STOCKS AND CRAVATS.

Fancy Silk and Satin Tye Stocks; Bombazine and Black, do. do; Satin ends, do; Bow, day Plain, do; Bombazine Bow and Satin pleated Stocks; Rich figured Silk and Satin Cravats and Hdkfs.; Italian Silk Hdkfs., Black French, do, Linen, Muslin, Marbas, and Gingham, do.

HATS AND CAPS: the assortment is very large—call and examine for yourselves.

Suspenders of every description, from 8c to $1.25. Silk, Gingham and Cotton Umbrellas; Hickory, Palm Wood, and Rattan Canes.

The United States Clothing Store stands unrivalled in the sale of Boys' Clothing; and I have now on hand a large assortment of blue and black Broadcloth Suits, that will fit boys from 4 years old to ten. Also, a large assortment of Fancy Suits of the best French Cassimere. Don't forget the number, 91 Thames street, sign of the large Window. May 4 1/2-1

New-York Illustrated Magazine of Literature and Art.

Edited by LAWRENCE LARREE, and Published by WILLIAM TAYLOR, No. 2 Astor House, New-York.

THE Second Volume of the "ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE" will be commenced with the May number, and will be published about the fifteenth of April, and the success which has so far attended our enterprise has determined us to spare nothing that will insure an increased patronage. The large edition printed of the first volume was exhausted at the publication of the fourth number.

Our new volume will be commenced with a much larger edition, to secure for subscribers complete sets, and will possess INCREASED ATTRACTIONS! Great improvements will be made in our Engravings, giving FOUR SLENDOR STEEL PLATES! in each number, and a variety of finely executed ILLUSTRATIONS ON WOOD! The letter-press will be of a high and refined order, original and selected, consisting of Romance, Historical Sketches, Poetry, Essays, Reviews, Biography, &c. &c. Our selections will be mostly from sources beyond the reach or means of the general reader, and no pains or expense will be spared to make it worthy the attention of every one.

The Magazine will be handsomely printed on Butler's superior paper, with bold beautiful type, and each number will contain SIXTY-FOUR LARGE OCTAVO PAGES! making two elegant volumes a year of 768 pages, (384 each,) illustrated with FORTY-EIGHT ENGRAVINGS ON STEEL! independent of the numerous illustrations on wood.

As a LADY'S and GENTLEMAN'S Magazine, it may be welcomed by, and prove an agreeable companion to, the most fastidious.

Arrangements have been made to procure original translations from some of the most popular French authors. The press in all parts of the country have been lavish in their praises of the "Illustrated Magazine," as will be seen by the following—

The Journal of Commerce says: "The literary contents are of the most interesting character."

The Rambler says: "It is destined to be the Magazine of the country."

It is got up in a very elegant style, type, paper, engravings—all good. * * It will prove a powerful rival among its lighter competitors.—N. Y. Evening Mirror.

Each number contains four gems of the old or new masters, besides some half a score of wood-cut illustrations of the literary contents.

Phil. Sat. Courier. It will be a favorite for all those who look for choice pictorials.—N. Y. Sunday Atlas.

Of its literary contents we need not speak, unless to say that they are "increasing rich."

One of the largest and handsomest magazines now published.—Herald, (N. Y.) Repub.

Decidedly one of the best periodicals of the day.—Dorset, (N. H.) Gazette.

The embellishments are uncommonly elegant, both in design and execution.—N. Y. True Sun.

It is a work which ought to have a great circulation.—Nash's Weekly Messenger.

Light, graceful, pleasant reading, of a pure moral tone and mostly novel, accompanied with no less than four steel and four wood engravings, which elegantly embellish as well as illustrate the work.—Park Benjamin's Western Continent.

Those who wish a first-rate table companion, must obtain the New-York Illustrated Magazine.—Dorset, (Mass.) Post.

It contains four [steel] engravings, and a large number of wood cuts, besides sixty-four pages of excellent reading matter.—Philo. Chronicle.

One of the pleasantest periodicals of light literature published in this country.—Portland Bulletin.

Numerous other compliments might be cited, had we room.

Agents, and persons wishing to commence with the new volume, are requested to send in their order as soon as possible, to secure complete sets.

TERMS.—Yearly subscription, $3; two copies, $5; or five copies (to one address) $10.

All letters of subscription, and orders, addressed to Wm. Taylor, 2 Astor House.

NO MORE SUFFERING

This Soap is an Eastern Botanical discovery of superior efficacy for rendering the skin soft, clear and fair, and imparting to the complexion a healthy rosy hue; as a creator and conservator of a transparently fair skin Radway's Chinese Medicated Soap may be said to exert an almost magical effect; it being perfectly free from all mineral admixture; it is distinguished for its extremely bland, purifying and soothing effects upon the skin, while by its action on the pores and minute secre-

tory vessels expels all impurities from the surface, allays every tendency to inflammation, and effectually removes all redness, Tan, Pimples, Spots, Freckles, Salt Rheum, Ring Worm, Erysipelas, Rash, and other unsightly cutaneous visitations.

PICKLES, PUT up in wine vinegar, a choice selection for family use at the Franklin Hall, corner of Thames and Fair streets.

FRANK HAMNETT.

The Columbian Magazine, 1846.

Entered by JOHN INMAN and ROBERT A. WEST. IN entering upon the fifth volume of the Columbian Magazine we find ourselves somewhat perplexed as to the right execution of our task. We have much to say of the past; but it might seem egotistical to say it; and we have much to say of the future, but we fear lest we should appear unduly to boast. On the other hand, something at this season must be said, lest we should appear ungrateful for the steadily increasing patronage bestowed upon us. Is not ours a pleasant predicament? On one hand stands the spirit of our proverbial modesty; and the moment we begin to speak of what we have done and shall do, it lays its shadowy finger upon its ghostly lips, and with other mysterious gestures frowns us into silence; on the other hand the generous public—the embodiment and impersonation of several thousands of subscribers and readers—demands that we pay tribute to their liberal patronage, that we recall the pleasures they have been wont to enjoy for now two years in our pages, and that we declare our plans for the future. We have, of course, no choice left but to exorcise the ghost of our native bashfulness. 'Tis done;—and now we will talk freely with our "dear public," of ourselves and our intentions.

How rapidly, and notwithstanding difficulties to be surmounted, how pleasantly has time sped since we tried the experiment of a new magazine in this great emporium of commerce. Two years' life have elapsed, and yet our enterprise has been crowned with success, and the pages of the Columbian Magazine periodically gladden and instruct the hearts of the matchless fair ones of our own proud city and state, throwing the light of its pleasant tales and ever virtuous sentiments over many thousand family circles, fostering purest affections and teaching lessons that well might fall from mother's lips into children's listening ears. Already has our magazine numerous readers in every State of the Union. The shrewd and observant New Englander greets it with a hearty welcome; on summer's eve beneath shady trees, or on winter's night around the glowing hearth, many a youthful seion of a worthy sire reads aloud from its pages, while beautiful and virtuous daughters ply the willing needle, and aged sire and dame exchange approving and delighted glances. Far away in the thickly peopled West do we aid in upholding and perpetuating the refining influence of literature and art, and soothe the asperities of arduous toil and isolated life; and the sunny South greets us monthly with a frank and generous welcome. Yes, brief though our existence has been, it has neither been profitless nor joyless. We have sought to supply Americans with a magazine worthy of America, and the universal hail of welcome that has greeted us has far exceeded our expectations, while it has increased our conviction that a magazine such as we have been able to furnish, was needed for the many thousands of American readers.

We enter upon our third year with bright and cheering prospects. Every where has the press spoken in terms of high commendation, not alone of the literary contents of the Columbian, but of its unsurpassed embellishments, and never with warmer praise than during the last six months. This, with our increased circulation, we take as an acknowledgement that we have fulfilled the promises we renewed six months ago. We need not again renew them. Be it ours to do and not to boast. To those who have patronized us so far, we offer grateful thanks. We have no doubt that we shall continue to secure their approval and their good wishes. To those who, now that this new postage law is in full operation and a new year is commencing, will doubtless swell the list of our patrons, we say that we have contracted for, and have in progress some of the richest and rarest embellishments, for the new volume, that have ever been produced in this country—embellishments designed as well as engraved expressly for the work; and that we have entered into treaty with many of the first American authors regularly to aid us by their literary labors. These arrangements leave of course entailed upon us great expense, but we intend that the Columbian shall be the first—in every respect the best—of American magazines. Let there be no misapprehension on this point, and let our friends give us the return of a still larger patronage, for we will deserve it.

As to the past or future discharge of our editorial duties it behooves us to say little. We shall indeed but express our obligations to our numerous correspondents, and request a continuance of their favors, assuring them that they shall ever have the most courteous attention at our hands.

We have but to add that the publisher enters upon a new volume, therefore, with expectations of increased patronage. He has every reason for indulging such expectations. Increased exertions will be made to deserve it in each department of the work.

Speaking of correspondents, we refer with pride to the annexed list of those who have hitherto aided us, embodying, as it does, names that are an honor to our country's literature—those who have attained to the highest fame and others who are steadily and rapidly pressing to the same goal.
